L Though owing to differences in the family, the various members have been unable to agree in the selection of proper objects of useful public charity and have accordingly left such selection to His Highness the Maha Rajah, yet, having regard to the wishes already expressed by them from time to time, and bearing in mind the fact that the family really consists of two branches His Highness is of opinion that it will be best in the interest of the public and most agreeable to the wishes of both branches of the family, that there should be two Charities, one in the name of Raja Raja Bahadur for the Construction and maintenance of a Chattram and the other in the name of Sivaraja Bahadur

Bahadur, father of Sivaramiah Rajah Bahadur, for the advance ment of education.

5 His Highness the Maha Raja regrets to be unable that their immediate attention of these Chairtures should be drawn upon the State Surgeon's Department and he believes that they will be more efficiently under, economically administered by Committees of private gentlemen.

7 His Highness is pleased to entrust the remaining sum of Rs 50,000 to a Committee Composed of the following gentlemen.

1 Mr. V. R. Shanmugam (Chairman
2 " C. Chidambaram Iyer
3 " A. Viswanatha Iyengar
4 " A. V. Narayana Shastri,
5. " Mallari Rau (School master)
6 " V. Mallappa (School Master)
7. " V. Ramachandra Reader
8 " M. Vanguda Raja Rao (Attache)

The Committee will consist safely the whole of the funds entrust-ed to them in Govt Promissory notes or in suitable landed property and out of the proceeds of such investment, found endowments in the name of Sayaraya Bahadur for the improvement of Sanskrit and Vernacular literature and for the advancement of education in directions in which adequate provisions do not already exist. They should make the investment and endowments as above directed after obtaining His Highness' previous sanction to their proposals in that behalf.

8. His Highness reserves to him-self the power of removing any of the trustees appointed under paras 6 & 7 above, as well as the power to appoint additional trustees or to fill up any vacancy caused by the death, retirement or removal of any trustee or otherwise.

4 Though owing to differences in the family the various members have been unable to agree in the selection of proper objects of useful public charity and have accordingly left such selection to His Highness the Maharaja, yet, having regard to the wishes already expressed by them from time to time, and bearing in mind the fact that the family really consists of two branches, His Highness is of opinion that it will be best in the interest of the public and most agreeable to the wishes of both branches of the family that there should be two charities, one in the name of Nanja Raja Bahadur for the construction and maintenance of a Chattram, and the other in the name of Devaraja Bahadur, father of Sivaram Raja Bahadur, for the advancement of Education—

5 His Highness the Maharaja regards it as undesirable that the administration of these Charities should be thrown upon the State Muzeroy Department and he believes that they will be more efficiently and economically administered by Committees of private gentlemen.

6 With the view, therefore, of carrying out the construction and providing for the maintenance of a Chattram at Mysore intended for all classes and to be called "Nanjaraj Chattram," His Highness the Maharaja is pleased to entrust the sum of Rs 63,547-7-- to a Committee composed of the following gentlemen :—

1. Mr Nagendra Krishna Urs.
2. Rai Bahadur P. Krishna Row.
3 Do A R Sabhapati Moodeliar
4. Sowcar Veerasangappa.
5 Sowcar Bommia
6 Mr G H Bayly.

7 His Highness is pleased to entrust the remaining sum of Rs 50,000/- to a Committee composed of the following gentlemen:—

1 Mr J R A Thumboo Chettiar
2 E Chidambaram Iyer.

3 Mr A Narsimha Iyengar
4 " A R Narrayen Sastri
5 " Mallari Rau (School Master)
6 " B Mallappa (School Master)
7. " S Runga Charlu (Pleader) and 8 " H Nunjunda Raje Urs (Attache)

This Committee will invest safely the whole of the funds entrusted to them in Govt Promissory Notes or in suitable landed property and out of the proceeds of such investment, found endowments in the name of Devaraja Bahadur for the improvement of Sanskrit and Vernacular literature and for the advancement of education in directions in which adequate provisions do not already exist. They should make the investment and endowments as above directed after obtaining His Highness' previous sanction to their proposals in that behalf—

8. His Highness reserves to himself the power of removing any of the trustees appointed under paras 6 & 7 above as well as the power to appoint additional trustees and to fill up any vacancy — caused by the death, retirement or removal of any trustee or otherwise—
